APPLICATION QUESTIONS

1. As we have studied through the Gospel of John, what are some things you have learned about the person of Christ? What are some specific passages that stand out that have helped you learn more about Jesus?
2. What have you learned about the nature of real belief in the Gospel of John? What are some of the key differences in the kind of belief that John is desiring in his readers and the supposed "faith" of many today?
3. Read John 17:3. Think of a few specific ways that knowing God will bless your life this week. What are some of the things in your life that distract you from this ultimate blessing of knowing him?
4. Read John 15:7-11. As we approach the often-busy Christmas season, how will you focus on abiding in Christ? What are some specific aspects of this passage that you want to focus on in the coming weeks?
5. Read John 20:30-31. Who are some specific people you would like to share the truth of Jesus with in hopes that they might believe and have life? Commit to praying them for the next few weeks and seek to speak to them about Jesus this Christmas!
