Philippians 2:5-11 (ESV)
5 Have this mind among yourselves, which is yours in Christ Jesus, 6 who, though he was in the form of God, did not count equality with God a thing to be grasped, 7 but emptied himself, by taking the form of a servant, being born in the likeness of men. 8 And being found in human form, he humbled himself by becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross. 9 Therefore God has highly exalted him and bestowed on him the name that is above every name, 10 so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, 11 and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

APPLICATION QUESTIONS

1. What are some of the things you might be tempted to grasp onto or hold too tightly that could prevent you from serving others? How can the example of Christ cause you to think differently about these things?

2. Read Mark 10:42-45. As you consider that passage and our text in Philippians, what about the example of Christ most amazes you? As you consider how to follow Christ's example, don't forget to thank him for how he has served you!

3. Read Mark 14:36. What are some ways that serving others will require you to submit your will to God's will? What are some of the ways your submission could demonstrate the gospel to others?

4. Read Colossians 3:17. As you think through the activities of your week this week, what will it look like to "do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus"?

5. Read Hebrews 11:24-26. What are some of the ways the treasure or honors of this world may tempt you? How can you follow Moses' example of looking to the reward?
